SEASIDE HOLIDAYS

We love a trip to the seaside, but how has this favourite past time changed from the Victorian period to today? Our Seaside Holidays box contains typical items that a Victorian girl and 1950s girl might have packed to take on holiday. With a mixture of real and replica artefacts, this box is sure to spark lively discussion.

WHAT'S IN THE BOX?

A Victorian hamper containing coins, tin bucket and wooden spade • Skipping rope • Swimsuit for a man and woman • Postcards • Bottles • Towel • A 1950s suitcase with swimming trunks and a swimsuit • Gloves • Beads • Box brownie camera • Books • A doll • Photographs and images.

VICTORIAN SEASIDE

With the introduction of the railways in Britain, travel around the country became easier and people began to flock to the seaside for holidays. Children can explore what kinds of things Victorians took with them to the seaside, what they wore on the beach, and what type of activities children played.

WHAT'S IN THE BOX?

A wicker hamper containing: Swimsuit • Tin bucket and wooden spade • Shells • Coins • button hook • Marbles • Top and whip • Skipping rope • Sun hat • Gloves • Dip pen • "Scraps" • Images, posters and labels for display.

PUNCH AND JUDY

One of the staples of the great British seaside for many years were the Punch and Judy shows filled with comic scenes. Adults and children alike enjoyed seeing Mr Punch get up to mischief, while the other characters looked on. Using our Punch and Judy box your class can explore this seaside tradition, create their own scripts and perform for their friends.

WHAT'S IN THE BOX?

Puppet theatre • Mr Punch and his infamous stick • Judy and her frying pan • Joey the Clown • The Crocodile • The Policeman with his truncheon • The baby • Posters, images and scripts.

SIGNIFICANT EVENTS

SAMUEL PEPYS AND THE GREAT FIRE OF LONDON

The Great Fire of 1666 was a disaster for London, destroying more than 13,000 houses over four days. Much of what we know of the event has come from the famous diary of Samuel Pepys. Using this box your class can put Pepys in the hot seat and imagine what it was like to witness such a catastrophic event.

Samuel Pepys costumes including wig
 • Mrs Pepys costumes • Candlestick and candle • Quill pen and ink pot • Clay pipe • Coins • Extract from Pepys diary • Panorama images of London • Posters, books and labels for display.

THE TITANIC

In the early hours of 14 April 1912, the Titanic descended to the bottom of the Atlantic. But how could this “unsinkable” ship sink? Using real and replica objects from the time, as well as costumes for different classes, this box helps you explore what happened and how this tragedy could have been avoided.

First and third class passenger costumes • Captain's hat and whistle
 • Replica Lifejacket • Coins • Pocket watch • Morse code tapper and telegrams • Boarding pass • Newspaper extracts • Images of the Titanic.

BONFIRE NIGHT

COMING SOON!

Remember, remember, the fifth of November... This annual event is such an exciting part of autumn, with families gathering around bonfires and watching firework displays. But why do we do this? Our Bonfire Night box explores the Gunpowder Plot through costume and artefacts, and asks why Guy Fawkes wanted to blow up parliament in 1605.

WHAT'S IN THE BOX?

This box will include a costume for Guy Fawkes and a selection of artefacts to help children explore this fascinating period of history.

REMEMBRANCE DAY

With 2018 being the centenary of the end of the Great War, this is a perfect opportunity to get children thinking about why we gather together for a 2 minute silence on 11th November. Our Remembrance Day box contains the belongings of a soldier from the First World War and encourages children to think about the sacrifices made by those who have fought for our freedom, and those who continue to do this today.

WHAT'S IN THE BOX?

First World War great coat and cap • Gloves and scarf • Playing cards • Spent bullets • Embroidered postcards • Whistle • Locket with lock of hair • Tobacco tin • Photographs • Remembrance Day poppies • Printed resources.

Prehistory, Saxons, Vikings and more; we have an extensive range of boxes designed to use the historical enquiry skills developed at key stage 1 to discover fascinating facts about British, local and world history.

STONE AGE TO IRON AGE

STONE AGE TO IRON AGE

From hundreds of thousands years ago to the invasion of Britain, prehistory accounts for much of human history, but nothing was written down until the Romans came along, so how do we know about what happened? With our Stone Age to Iron Age box, your class become archaeologists, handling real and replica objects from the Stone Age, Bronze Age and Iron Age to find out what life might have been like.

WHAT'S IN THE BOX?

Costume for a Neolithic man and Iron Age man • A selection of original and replica artefacts including hand axes, Antler pick, Harpoon, Palstaves (Axe heads), Coins, Spear heads and Cloak pins.

IRON AGE CELTS

No one actually used the word Celt to describe Iron Age people in Britain until the 18th Century, in fact the Romans called these people Britons. Celt is from the Greek word Keltoi, which means barbarian – is this a good description of the ancient Britons? Handle artefacts and role play in costume to find out.

WHAT'S IN THE BOX?

Costumes for an Iron Age warrior and woman • Artefacts include coins, torc bracelet, loom weights; posters, discussion cards, images, books and display labels.

THE ROMAN EMPIRE

ROMANS v CELTS

AD43 was a big year for ancient Britons – After two attempts by Julius Caesar, emperor Claudius invaded with his huge army! Our Romans v Celts box contains two Celt outfits and a Roman soldier, complete with plate armour, so your class can role play the invasion and talk about the impact this had on the Ancient Britons.

WHAT'S IN THE BOX?

Costumes for Boudicca • A Celtic warrior and a Roman soldier • Artefacts including pottery, mosaic tesserae, torc bracelet, knuckle bones, wax tablet and stylus, images, posters, display labels.

ROMAN LIFE

Once the Romans invaded and settled in Britain, what was life like for Roman people? Using our Roman life box, your class can explore what kind of objects Roman people had, role play using the costumes, and use the printed resources to develop their historical enquiry skills.

WHAT'S IN THE BOX?

Costumes for a wealthy family, a middle class family and a slave • Artefacts include wax tablet and stylus, glass beads, coins, copper lamp, torque bracelet, pottery, and mosaic tesserae; images or roman life, books, a CD of roman music, and labels for display.

SAXONS AND VIKINGS

THE SAXONS

The time of the Saxons and Vikings is often called the dark ages as there's little documentary evidence for this period, but archaeologists have shown us that this was actually a time of art, culture and learning.

Using our Saxons boxes you can bring this dark period into the light and discover what life was like for the Saxons.

WHAT'S IN THE BOX?

Costumes for a Saxon man and woman • Saxon shield • Pottery sherds • Bone needle glass beads • Coins • Animal bones • Jewellery • Object record sheets • Images • Posters • Labels for display.

THE VIKINGS

Raiders or traders? The Vikings have been portrayed as terrible warriors who killed anyone in their path. With a mixture of costume, artefacts and activities, your class can find out that there's more to these people than meets the eye!

WHAT'S IN THE BOX?

Costumes for a Viking man and woman • Pottery lamp • Coins • Thor's hammer • Brooches • Bone needle • Images and a selection of books.
